"My Name is Grant." From the Pittsburg Commercial.] A prominent minister of the M. E. Church, South, whose home was near Appomatox Court House, tells the tol-

Appomatox Court House, tells the following story of Grant:

"The night after Lee's surrender my house was full of Union Generals. There was Sheridan, Humphreys, Meade, Custer, Ord and quite a number of others, and they were a lively set and full of fun, and all were quite jolly with the exception of one officer, whom I noticed sitting m a corner, smoking and taking but little part in the sports in which the rest were engaged. They all went out of the house but this solitary, silent man, and as I was going out he asked me where the pump was, as he would like to get drink. On offering to get him some water he said: 'No, sir, I am younger than you, I wiff go myself.' And as I passed out he came up behind me. When in about the middle of the hill my little granddaughter came running toward me, but the silent man, spreading out both arms, caught her, taking her up and fairly smothering herwith kisses, said: 'This reminds me'of my little girl at home, and makes me feel homesick.' To the question, 'Where is your home?' he replied, 'Gantal', 'Grant?' exclaimed!, 'General Grant,' 'Grant?' exclaimed!, 'General Grant,' and an anxious to get back to them.' I said, 'Will you permit me to sky your name?' 'Certainly. My name is Grant.' 'Grant?' exclaimed!, 'General Grant,' and an anxious to get back to them.' I said, 'Will you permit me to sky your name?' 'Certainly. My name is Grant.' 'Grant?' exclaimed!, 'General Grant,' and an anxious to get back to them.' I said, 'Will you permit me to ake your name?' 'Certainly. My name is Grant.' 'Grant?' exclaimed!, 'General Grant had been pictured out to us as a bloody butcher, and I looked for a man looking as savage as a Comanche Indian.''

REMOVE ALL KINDS OF WORMS (WILL not remove the head of the Tapeworm) without the sid of other remedies. They act as a mild cathartic, and are useful in regulating the bowels, for costiveness, indigestion, sour or weak stomach. The symptoms of stomach worms are: Foul tongue, eyes heavy and expressionless, dry, hacking cough, sallow complexion, dark and blue circles around the eyes, foul and disagreeable breath, constant picking of the mose, grinding of the teeth, and starting up with terror and fright during sleep, at times very feverish accompanied with great thirst, he cheeks flushed and them again as pale as death and white around the mouth, the belty hard and swollen, short, cramping pains in the stomach. These worms sometimes knot up in the throat, causing death by strangulation. The symptoms of Ascarides generally called seat. or pin words, are noticed by an itching sensation of the lower end of the bowels or rectum. There are other kinds of worms that inhabit the human system, but their symptoms are similar to those above mentioned.
